Growth-minded marketer who pairs hands-on social media and email execution with a data-driven, test-and-learn approach. As Community Manager I owned the social presence of local brands across three summer seasons, planning and shipping content on Instagram and Facebook and writing conversion-oriented copy. At BBVA I run daily CRM operations, guide over 100 customers per week and own the customer relationship end to end. I am a strong writer, an entrepreneurial self-starter who turns ambiguity into execution, and I use AI tools such as Claude Code to prototype content and iterate on experiments faster. I am completing the Google Data Analytics Professional Certificate (SQL, spreadsheets, visualisation) to prove impact with numbers, not intuition.

Core Competencies

- Social media growth: planned and published organic content on Instagram and Facebook (Meta Business Suite), owning the social presence of multiple brands and testing angles to attract the right audience.
- Email & CRM: daily CRM operations focused on retention and customer experience; building toward customer email series and lifecycle programs across owned channels.
- Copywriting & content: strong writer of conversion-oriented copy for brand campaigns, paired with visual content produced in Canva.
- Growth mindset & experimentation: entrepreneurial self-starter who tests, measures, stops what does not work and doubles down on what does; uses AI tools such as Claude Code to move faster.
- Data & analytics: SQL, spreadsheets, visualisation and analysis applied to marketing metrics such as reach, engagement, open rate, CTR and conversion (Google Data Analytics, in progress).
- Tools: Meta Business Suite, Canva, CRM systems, Google Sheets / Excel, SQL, Claude Code.
