Marketing assistant profile built on content publishing, written communication and careful, detail-driven execution. As Community Manager I scheduled and published social media content for local brands on Instagram and Facebook through Meta Business Suite, kept a monthly content calendar and wrote the copy myself. At BBVA I run daily CRM operations, handle confidential customer information and resolve over 50 queries per week, work that lives on follow-through and accuracy. I write clearly in Spanish and English, I follow instructions to the letter, and I use AI assistants such as ChatGPT and Claude (Claude Code) to draft, format and check work faster. Available approximately 30 hours per week during U.S. Eastern Time business hours, a schedule that fits alongside my Marketing degree.

Core Competencies

- Content scheduling & publishing: planned, scheduled and published social media posts on Instagram and Facebook with Meta Business Suite, maintaining a monthly content calendar across several brand accounts.
- Writing & editing: conversion-oriented copy, captions and brand communication in Spanish and English; formal training in oral and written communication (UTN Diploma in Oral Communication and Rhetoric).
- Email & client support: daily inbox and CRM work at BBVA, writing and answering customer communications, keeping every case tracked to resolution.
- Data gathering & client updates: spreadsheets, SQL and data visualisation applied to reach, engagement and customer metrics, turning raw numbers into short, readable updates (Google Data Analytics, in progress).
- Organisation & follow-through: multiple parallel workstreams, deadlines and recurring publishing cycles handled without dropped tasks; confidential information handled under banking procedures.
- AI tools: ChatGPT and Claude (including Claude Code) used daily to draft, restructure and proofread content and to speed up repetitive marketing tasks.
- Software: Meta Business Suite, Canva, CRM systems, Google Sheets / Excel, SQL, ChatGPT, Claude.
